

Upper Gannawarra F.L.

■ Exclusive to the Overnighters
■ Faxed by 'Bob The Barman' of the Grand Central Hotel, from the Titybong General Store and Licensed Post Office. The notes were prepared by Tom Morris, Editor of the Upper Gannawarra Chronicle.

■ Round 15 scores: Titybong 17.11 (124) v Wangie 14.12 (96). Cokum 16.12 (108) d Kalpienung 15.14 (104). Towaninny 18.11 (119) d Towaninny South 13.11 (89). Ninyeunook 19.17 (131) d Cannie 10.10 (70).

■ Ladder: 1. Cokum, 44. 2. Towaninny, 44. 3. Titybng, 36. 4. Cannie, 34. 5. Kalpienung, 28. 6. Ninyeunook, 26. 7. Towaninny South, 16. 8. Wangie 12.

■ Notes: Titybong missed the strength of James 'Haystack Wright, out on suspension, and competing in the wood-chop at the Titybong show. But the Tits were out in front when the bell rang at the Fred Morris Reserve against Wangie.

There was a sensation in the Cokum-Kalpienung match when veteran timekeeper Eric Snell fell asleep in the press box in the final quarter, leading to a 46-minute last term.

Towaninny won the derby. Ninyeunook's trip to Cannie was worth the hire of the van.

■ Social: The 123rd Annual Titybong Show was a success, with many local identities paying a visit to the Ebenezer Morris Memorial Showgrounds on Saturday morning before the home game against Wangie.

There were two unfortunate incidents. There has been a serious falling out between Tessa Morris and her visiting cousin Roberta, who both competed for the Miss Titybong quest. Roberta took out the title, despite the district's favourite daughter Tessa was favourite. Local bookmaker Snowy Wren has been reported missing.

And it is disappointing to report that the Titybong Show gate receipts of $528 went missing on Saturday. Police are questioning Sadie, sister of Goldie Silverstein. Mayor Ron Lawson, of Lawson's Silos, said it was a sad day for Titybong.

■ This Saturday's Matches: Round 16. Observers say a possible preview of the UGFL grand final, Cokum v Titybong, could be played out at the High School Oval this Saturday. Wangie are expected to go down to Towaninny, at Upper Gannawarra Park. Kalpienung will be at home at the Soldiers Reserve to play Cannie. Towaninny South may provide a surprise when they visit the Ninyeunook oval, near the airstrip.

■ Winner of the meat tray was Curly Mott.

■ Results Service: The Upper Gannawarra Football League report is heard at approx 1.30am and 4.30am every Monday morning at 3AW, and is also in the front window of Hiscocks Meats and Gourmet Deli of Morris Parade, Titybong, and branches throughout the Upper Gannawarra.
